

9c Pair--Three Pair for 25c

News to Hosiery Buyers

It is very seldom that we are able to offer anything in men's wear at a bargain, but we know we have something in this sale that no man can afford to pass, and that is a full fashioned fifteen cent Half-Hose for NINE CENTS or THREE PAIRS FOR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

These being seconds, with scarcely any visible imperfections, it makes it possible to sell them at this price. On account of the small assortment we could get of these goods we shall be obliged to reserve the right to limit the number of Hose to a customer.

REMEMBER this sale is for one day only, Saturday, August 21st.

The Scotch picture "Lochinvar," which made such a hit last night, will be continued to-night. The scenic surroundings and acting of this picture are said to be all that could be desired.

After being examined by City Physician P. & Duffy and Dr. E. G. Chidell, Louis Sani was released from the police station yesterday afternoon. The physicians stated that they found his mental condition was due to alcoholism. They decided his condition was not serious enough to warrant sending him to the asylum at Waterbury, but that he ought to be kept watch of for a while and if he left liquor alone would be all right.
